Become a Conservative Party Member

Being a member of the Conservative Party means that you have joined the most open and democratic political party in Britain. After the first three months of your membership of Brent North Conservative Association, you will be entitled to a vote in Party ballots. You will also have a chance to influence Party policy by letting us know your views.

Am I Eligible?

Any person living in the United Kingdom is eligible to join the Conservative Party. There is no upper or lower age limit on membership, although children under the age of 15 are not entitled to full voting rights. The Party reserves the right to refuse membership to any individual.

The Benefits of Membership

The principal benefit of membership of the Conservative Party is the right to participate. Paid up members of the Conservative Party have the following rights: What your subscription also does is promote Conservative awareness in Brent North in the form of leafleting, newsletters, advertising, poster display and administrative support from our office, with the main intention of ensuring that Conservatives are in the majority at Parliamentary, European, County, District and Borough council levels.

The principal benefit of membership of Brent North Conservative Association is the right to participate. Paid up members of the Association have the following rights:

- A vote in the selection of candidates for Westminster and Europe
- A vote in the election of Brent North Constituency Association Officers
- Representation on the governing board of the Party
- Opportunities to attend Party Conference
- Social & Political events throughout the year
- Contribute to decisions on key policy ideas for the next General Election

We're always looking for new people to join our team as activists, campaigners, deliverers and also to stand in Local Elections as Prospective Councillors, so if you're committed to your community and want to help make our part of Brent North a better place to live and work, please get in touch.
